Industrial Road Site Of County Fair

Industrial Road will be the area where the Calloway County Fair will be held this year, according to a spokesman of the board. The Joe B. Smith property on Industrial Road near the Ryan Milk Company was selected by the board for this year's event.

Last year it was held in the southeastern section of the city, just outside the city limits. The fair will continue for six nights this year with a larger event being promised. The date is set for July 24 through July 29.

The horse show will be directed by Thomas Banks, well known horse enthusiast, who has shown in a large number of shows in the south and mid-west. Banks said that it is his opinion that with the expansion of this year's show, many horse owners will be attracted by the horse show, which means that a more outstanding performance will be in the offering for the spectator.

Robert Hopkins is president of the Fair Board and has been praised for the good organization work he is doing on this year's fair. Hopkins urges that all persons interested in the County Fair be present at the board meeting planned for this Thursday night at the city hall.

An effort is being made to present a more complete fair in every respect this year and a spokesman said that the experience learned from last year's fair will be of great value this year in eliminating mistakes, and in the improvement of the entertainment. The Ledger and Times will carry the full developments of the fair as they materialize.

The Kirksey Adult Farmer Class members and their wives were entertained last night with a steak supper, at the Kentucky Colonel given by the Bank of Murray for winning the attendance contest, participated in by all the adult farmer classes in the county. Joe Dick who presided at the event said Kirksey's average of 98.1 per cent is "almost unbelievable and probably unequalled in the state."

George Hart president of the Bank presented all class members with a good pocket knife. Mr. Hart said he had been in on the program from the very beginning when it was in the "talking stage" and that he was proud of the Kirksey class and all the classes in the county and what they were doing for themselves and for agriculture in the county.

He said that farming in general in Calloway was in good shape especially in "this time of the fellows who are trying to keep up." Mr. Hart also announced the promotion of Rob Gingles to the position of public relations and offered his services to the farmers in any way.

James Brandon, class president, commented how pleased he and other farmers were that they could have access to the adult farmer program and the services of Harp Brooks. In thanking Mr. Hart and the bank for the meal and the gifts, Brandon said that farmers in general are grateful to the business men of Murray for their assistance and help with farm problems.

Mr. Brooks instructor of the class said he enjoyed his work very much and that it was easy to work with Kirksey farmers, and he was very happy with the program that had been made in the Adult Farmer Program this year.

He pointed out that all the goals that were set up by the County Advisory Council would be reached or exceeded.

Through the assistance of the Soil Conservation Service each class member will soon have a soil capability map for his farm. Just recently members of the various classes took over 500 soil samples in one week.

Second place winner was the Lynn Grove class. Members of this class and their wives were entertained last week by the Peoples Bank. Third place winner was the Young Farmer Class, county wide members of this class and their wives were entertained by the Calloway County Soil Improvement Association. Other classes in the county are New Concord, Faxon, Almo and Hazel.

Those present were Messrs and Mesdames James Brandon, J. O. Bedwell, John Cunningham, Morgan Cunningham, Edward Collins, G. W. Air Strip Captured After Heavy Fighting Is Reported

By FRANCIS L. MCCARTHY
United Press International

Invading rebel forces in Cuba's Las Villas Province are "under extremely heavy attack" by Communist-built Mig jet aircraft, a top exile source said today at midday.

The spokesman said the liberation troops reporting to their secret general headquarters outside Cuba could not say how many aircraft were involved in the attacks. However, a steady stream of jets was coming in over their positions on bombing and strafing attacks, he said.

Simultaneously, the invading forces were attacked by large numbers of Communist-made tanks, he said.

Castro has long been reported to have been equipped with tanks from the Soviet bloc. Underground sources said they include the 80-ton Stalin type.

The combined attacks by air and ground forces apparently constituted an all-out attempt to throw the invading troops back in to the sea.

The midday report, if confirmed, would mark the first appearance in Cuban skies of Mig's. The Russian-type jets have been reported shipped to Fidel Castro in recent months from Czechoslovakia.

Foreign intelligence sources previously have estimated that Castro had between seven and 12 Mig's on secret airfields.

The same high exile sources had reported at mid-morning that the invading forces seized an air strip in the beachhead area around Cochinos Bay and were flying in and out on a regular basis. This apparently was before Castro jets went into action.

The landing strip was captured after fighting described by the sources as "heavy."

An exile spokesman said flatly that liberation troops in Las Villas and Oriente provinces "are firmly established and being supplied."

He said that in the Las Villas area there were two points where consolidation was under way. He declined to elaborate on this.

The principal movement, he said, has been a spread of troops fanning out from Jaguey Grande, where he said more than 100 of Premier Fidel Castro's militiamen were killed Monday.

When asked for the direction of the movement, he said "you could describe it as the spokes of a wheel."

Jaguey Grande is on hard ground about 20 miles inland from the Cienaga de Zapata swampland area where the liberation troops stormed ashore at three points.

The spokesman disclosed that the air strip was captured Monday, but said it could not be used earlier because no aviation gasoline was on hand.

Flying In and Out
"Now they have fuel and they are flying in and out," he said.

The spokesman said that "complete communications" have been established between liberation forces in Las Villas and Oriente provinces with the secret Cuban Revolutionary Council General headquarters outside Cuba.

The communications network, he said, "is routed through a third country outside of the United States."

Pressed to amplify the remark, he replied that "we are getting our news from our forces in Cuba through a certain Latin American country."

He declined to add anything further.

Proclaims Emergency
Twenty-four hours after the invaders dashed ashore in Las Villas Province, Premier Fidel Castro proclaimed over an emergency national radio hookup that his forces were "fighting valiantly." He said details would be disclosed later on new "successes obtained by the army."

As Castro spoke the Soviet Union hinted it would go to his aid unless the intervention ceased. Russia flatly accused the United States of helping the invasion. Thousands of Russians "besieged" the U. S. Embassy in Moscow.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent a personal message to President Kennedy urging him to "put an end to the aggression" and pledging that Russia would give Cuba "all aid necessary to repulse the armed attack." A separate Soviet government statement handed to the U. S. Embassy in Moscow contained the same demand. Castro's broadcast announcement was read for him over the radio network as a communications black-out obscured military developments. "The bands which attacked Cuba were organized in the United States," Khrushchev said. He pledged the "USSR will give the Cuban people and its government all aid necessary to repulse the armed attack."

Last year, the Soviet premier rattled rockets in defense of the Castro regime. He did not repeat this in so many words today but said the little Cuban war could spread into "a conflagration which will be impossible to cope with."

Expect U. S. Rejection U. S. officials said they expected President Kennedy to quickly and firmly reject Khrushchev's charge. In Moscow, a mob of 2,000 students attacked the U. S. Embassy, smashing windows, and battled police and soldiers trying to maintain order in the streets.

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro said in a message broadcast over an emergency nationwide hookup early today that his forces were "fighting valiantly" against Cuban revolutionary invaders in Las Villas Province.

The statement promised details within hours of "the successes obtained by the Army," but as the hours dragged by the radio broadcast no further information on the battle.

Only One Identified The radio did report that 20 men and 9 women had been arrested on charges of plotting to assassinate Castro, but it was vague as to specific information. It identified one as Maj. Humberto Sori Marin, former agriculture minister who was reported under house arrest last December.

Castro's radio also reported eight anti-Castro men had been executed by a firing squad at midnight.

Aside from the government radio and reports from exile sources, there was almost a complete black-out of communications with Cuba. The Swiss government, which has been representing U. S. interests in Cuba since the break in diplomatic relations between Washington and Havana last year, said it had had no contact with its embassy in Havana in more than 24 hours.

The British government said it had only one brief contact with its Havana Embassy.

All Calls Fail United Press International was unable to get through to its Havana bureau with calls and cables placed from a number of capitals throughout the world, including Moscow.

Jittery Cuban government radio operators along the island's northern coastline could be heard trying to trace and identify a number of ships.

St. Louis Cardinals Tied For First Place With Giants After 9-5 Victory Over Dodgers

By NORMAN MILLER

For the benefit of those who thought the St. Louis Cardinals' 1960 third-place finish was a fluke, manager Solly Hemus' boys are showing off some power that indicates this year they're seriously shooting to go even higher. Shortstop Daryl Spencer topped off a three-homer outburst Monday night with a grand slam blast that gave the Cards a 9-5 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers. Joe Cunningham and Don Tausig also hit St. Louis homers.

Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and comeback - bound Gary Geiger of the Boston Red Sox also hit important homers in Monday's abbreviated major league schedule.

Mantle's homer, with a man on base, was his first hit of the year and helped the Yankees gain a 3-0 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics.

Geiger, out for the last half of last season because of a collapsed lung, hit a seventh-inning homer that proved to be the deciding run in the Red Sox' 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Reaches Milestone Duke Snider hit a two-run homer in a losing cause but it enabled the 34-year old Dodger outfielder to reach a significant milestone. This was his 370th homer of his career and placed him seventh on baseball's all-time homer-hitting list.

The Cards were one of the big surprises of last season when they wound-up in third-place. This season the consensus picked the Cards to finish fourth, but their early-season showing hints they could be a serious pennant threat.

Cunningham, whose batting average slipped to .280 last season after a .345 mark in 1959, collected a homer, double and two singles Monday night. Spencer hit his grand slam — the third of his career — in the ninth inning off reliever Larry Sherry. Spencer also drove in a run with a single.

Bob Miller, who took over the St. Louis pitching after starter Bob Gibson was knocked out in the seventh, was the winner, although he needed help from Mickey McDermott in the ninth. McDermott retired Wally Moon for the final out with the bases loaded.

Tie For First The victory moved the Cards into a first-place tie with the San Francisco Giants. The Cardinals game was the only one played in the National League.

In the American League, Mantle's grand slam and Whitey Ford's three-hit pitching sent the Yankees on to victory over the A's. Mantle also had two singles and a walk. He also drove in the Yankees' third run. Ford struck out eight and did not permit a runner to get past second base.

Jerry Walker, usually Mantle's nemesis when he pitched for the Baltimore Orioles, yielded the three Yankee runs during the seventh.

Landed in Oriente Province, in eastern Cuba, Saturday night engaged in heavy guerrilla action in the Sierra Cristal mountain range and at Baracoa.

The Cuban frigate Baire sank at its moorings at Nueva Gerona, the Isle of Pines, 60 miles off the southern coast of Havana Province. The Baire was one of the largest ships of the Cuban navy. It apparently either was sabotaged or scuttled.

Directors of the invasion gave this picture at the end of the first day of the fighting:

Troops dropped from planes and landed by sea Monday at the Bay of Cochinos were advancing inland across the waist of east Central Cuba from the southern coast. One report said the invaders numbered as high as 5,000. An estimated 100 Castro militiamen were believed killed.

Naval units and some air force personnel deserted to the invaders. — A revolutionary force which en innings he worked. Jackie Jensen's single, a bases-loaded walk and Geiger's homer supplied the Red Sox with their three runs against the Angels. Mike Fornieles, who last season set an AL record of 70 relief appearances, came to the rescue of starter Tom Brewer in the seventh when Ted Kluszewski and Steve Bilko hit doubles. Albie Pearson hit a Los Angeles homer.

MSC Golf Team Wins Second Match

The Murray State golf team won its second match of the season in three outings Monday with a big 18-3 win over visiting Southeast Missouri.

Jack Palmore of Murray led the field with a 67. His closest rival was Phil Graham also of Murray State down by four strokes. The best opposition could muster was a 77 by Bill Schwab.

Other scores were: 78 - Wayne McCullum, Benny Cavender, Murray; and Charles Lewis, Southeast; 79 - Fred Lancaster, Murray; 80 - Ron Medlin, Southeast; 82 - Dan Hugg, Southeast; and 88 - Larry Kelter, Southeast.

Murray won its first match of the season against Union University last week. The Racers meet Union again in their next match.

Benton Downs Murray Team

Three hit pitching by David Darnell enabled Benton to defeat a visiting baseball club from Murray 4-1 yesterday.

Murray's lone run came in the third inning. The Indians ran across three in the fourth and another in the fifth for the win.

Walter Blackburn and Robert Lee smacked a double each to lead the Tiger attack. Baremore paced the victors with three singles. Darnell aided his own cause with two hits.

I am married to the former Janie Wilson and the father of three sons and one daughter, Robert Jr., Bill, Burton Ray and Jane Marie.

I am a member of the First Methodist Church, Murray, and the following organizations: Murray Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, 4-H Club Council, Farm Bureau, Murray Masonic Lodge F&AM 105, Woodmen of the World, Calloway Conservation Club, and an active member of the Murray Baseball Association—having served 8 years as a Director of the Calloway County 4-H Club Council and a coach in the Little League Baseball Program for the past 10 years. I have always felt that the youth of our County is the most important asset that we have and I am proud to be able to contribute to their welfare.

For your careful consideration, I submit the importance of this Office and the necessity of having a qualified and experienced person as County Tax Commissioner. Do you realize that this Office is the only office that directly affects your pocket book? Do you realize that this Office determines the amount of money that our schools have to spend? —That our County Government receives for the operation of our fiscal affairs? —That our Health Department receives to supplement their budget? These are IMPORTANT facts—they deserve an experienced and qualified man to administer the duties of this office—I offer you an experienced Manufacturer, experienced farmer, experienced businessman and an experienced property owner, which places me in the valuable position of knowing your problems, plus 8 years experience as a Tax Administrator that gives me the knowledge and know-how to do something about those problems. In the 8 years that I have served as your Tax Commissioner this office has advanced from the horse and buggy days of operations to an Office that is fully mechanized, efficient and has one of the best operations in the State of Kentucky. My record is one of achievement that is known throughout the State and I look forward to more progress in the years to come.

A taxpayer needs a friend in the Tax Office—I will have more to say regarding the $60,000.00 per year savings that I was able to save the taxpayers of Calloway County each year for the past 8 years. More to say about the modern and up-to-date mapping program that I, personally, was able to obtain without a cent's cost to the County.

The duties of a tax commissioner are many and our work is heaviest at this time—our tax rolls must be prepared and our Board of Supervisors must meet, and for that reason I realize it will be impossible for me to personally contact each and every voter in this County. I will make a determined effort to see as many of you as possible, but should I fail to personally ask, please consider this as my appeal for your vote and support—remembering that there are few substitutes for EXPERIENCE and QUALIFICATIONS—and I shall be eternally grateful and continue to show my appreciation by rendering the people of Calloway County the very best service, performed in an efficient and courteous manner from your Tax Commissioner's Office.

Respectfully,
ROBERT YOUNG

To The People of Murray and Calloway County:

Let me take this opportunity to thank all of you who I have seen, for your kindness and encouragement.

Some of you I have not seen. This is due mostly to the bad weather. Thank you for your patience. I will do my best to get around to see you soon.

The fairness of my opponents is greatly appreciated. I am seeking to wage a fair campaign and if elected will conduct the office of Sheriff in the right manner and to the best interests of you, the people.

I appreciate YOU and your influence.

Sincerely,

WOODROW RICKMAN

P. P. Cavitt Hostess For South Murray Club Meet

The South Murray Homemakers Club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. N. P. Cavitt with the president, Mrs. Jewel Evans, presiding.

Mrs. Henry Hargis gave the devotional on the theme, "The Glory of God in Nature," with her scripture reading from Matthew 6. She closed with a poem and prayer.

"Framing Pictures" was the subject of the lesson given by Mrs. Kenneth Owen.

Mrs. Walter Miller gave a report on her trip to Farm and Home Week in January. Group singing was led by Mrs. Cavitt.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the twelve members and two visitors, Mrs. Jerry Tarry and Mrs. John Steele.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. E. T. Winchester.

Fifty-six of the approximately 200 species of ducks, geese and swans are found in the United States.

After talking with a large number of voters in the City and receiving very gratifying encouragement to make the race for re-election to the Office of City Judge, I made my decision to run again.

I made an announcement in the local papers and on the radio and also filed my intentions to seek re-election, several weeks ago. Since that time, I have contacted, personally, many voters in the City and your encouragement and pledge of support has been overwhelming. It truly makes me feel very humble but at the same time deeply grateful and sincerely thankful.

I shall always be appreciative of the confidence and trust you placed in my ability to serve you by electing me to this Office four years ago.

Although I have no opposition this time and will not be canvassing the City, I feel even more responsible to you, the voters, and shall always be grateful for the encouragement and cooperation already manifested and will continue, to the very best of my ability, to perform my duties with humility, sincerity and discretion.

To every one who has had a word of encouragement to me or to any one in my behalf, may I say very sincerely, Thank You.

William H. "Jake" Dunn

POINT OF INTEREST—Apparently President Kennedy is playing "guided tour" with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan during the prime minister's visit in Washington.

WIFELY CONCERN—Mrs. Valentina Gagarin didn't know husband Yuri was becoming the first man in space till a neighbor rushed over and told her after hearing a broadcast, but even then she seems to have felt a bit of wifely concern. (Radiophoto)
